PSYCHOLOGY Year 10
development of the brain and theories of	turn to crime, including biological and social	mean by mental health and looks in detail at cognitive development from Piaget, Dweck and	explanations, as well as how we punish and	schizophrenia and depression, including Willingham. The key research studies are by	rehabilitate them. The key research studies are	explanations and treatments. The key research
Piaget (1952) and Blackwell et al. (2007)	by Cooper and Mackie (1986) and Heaven (1996).	studies are by Daniel et al. (1991) and Tandoc et al. (2015)
Research methods is embedded within the topic.	Research methods is embedded within the	Research methods is embedded within the topic.	topic.
Assessment: end of topic test on	Assessment: end of topic test on criminal	Assessment: end of year exam consisting of a developmental psychology	psychology	Unit 1 paper covering all Year 10 content
	Year 11
Social influence explores conformity,	Memory introduces theories of memory, along	Revision collective and crowd behaviour, and	with what can cause forgetting and amnesia.
obedience, looking at both dispositional and	The key research studies are by Wilson et al.
situational explanations. The key research	(2008) and Braun et al. (2002)
studies are by Bickman (1974) and NatCen
(2011).	Research methods is embedded within the topic.
Sleep and dreaming includes the functions,	topio.
features and benefits of sleep, biological and Freudian theories of dreaming, and insomnia.
The key research studies are by Freud (1918)
and Williams et al. (1992)
Research methods is embedded within the topic.
Assessment: post 16 exam on content to date	Assessment: Unit 2 mock exam on all Year 11	Assessment Unit 1 mock exam prior to final
(Year 10 topics, plus social influence) and end of topic test on sleep and dreaming	topics and research methods	exams