

Top 7 Unique Places To Visit In Milan

News Correspondent Mia Forsyth

1) Palazzo Borromeo (Isola Bella):

Spend a delightful afternoon visiting the hidden gem of Milan. Enjoy a cup of tea in the beautiful gardens after the tour. The art lovers can explore the art gallery, and the music and history lovers can enjoy the Hall of Music.

2) Santa Maria presso San Satiro:

The small, Renaissance façade masks away the spacious interior. Visit the Tardis-like church and experience a mind-bending trip.

3) Backdoor 43:

Enjoy a drink or a cocktail from 19:30 to 3:00 am in one of the world's smallest bars. Be amazed by how tiny this 4 square meters place really is!

4) Palazzo Lombardia:

Standing at 161 metres, this 39-floor building offers an amazing 360° view of Milan. On a sunny, clear day, the Alps can be spotted in the distance.

5) Bosco Verticale:

At an 8 min walk from the Palazzo Lombardia, the two residential buildings feature hundreds of trees planted on the balconies of people's homes.

6) ATMOSfera:

This moving, train restaurant provides the chance to admire and explore the amazing city whilst having a delicious meal and drink.

7) Navigli's Antique Shops:

Take a relaxing walk down the quirky market filled with retro fashion, 50 year-old Chanel bags and original clothes from iconic brands.
