What about Comberton Village College?

Definition

› Children can abuse other children. This is generally referred to as peer on peer abuse and can take many forms. This can include (but is not limited to) bullying (including cyberbullying); sexual violence and sexual harassment; physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise causing physical harm; sexting and initiating/hazing type violence and rituals.

› Keeping Children Safe in Education, 2019

Statistics

- 1 in 3 girls have experienced sexual violence from a partner before they turn 18 years old.
- 4 in 10 teenage girls have experienced sexual coercion when they have been aged between 13 and 17 years old.
- One in five girls in England have suffered physical violence from their boyfriend.
- 48 percent of girls have experienced instances of emotional and online abuse from their partners.
- Two thirds of contact sexual abuse experienced by children under the age of 17 was perpetrated by someone under 18 years old.
- Almost a third of girls aged between 16 and 18 years old have been subjected to unwanted sexual touching in UK schools.

Should anyone tolerate.....?

- › Being sent abusive texts or messages on social media?
- › Other pupils asking them to send nude pictures of themselves?
- › Other pupils saying unkind things about them?
- › Other pupils making judgements about their sexuality?
- › Other pupils making hurtful comments about their race or religion?

- Three balloons are positioned vertically on the left side of the slide. The top two are green, and the bottom one is orange. Each balloon has a thin string and is surrounded by several small, light-colored triangular shapes that resemble confetti or streamers.
- › Ms Sara agreed with this, and said the most effective response would be for young people themselves to confront such attitudes.
 - › "It's really important we encourage our children and teenagers to be empowered to stand up to their friends and call out this behaviour, because I think that's the most influential space."

Student Wellbeing

Wellbeing at Comberton Village College

At Comberton Village College student and staff wellbeing is central to what we do. We understand that the move from childhood to adulthood can be challenging. We will seek to support all students in becoming confident, capable and caring individuals as they become adult members of our community.
